Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Edelman Amsterdam has moved into a beautiful monumental building on the Keizersgracht, where Beamm, together with InteriorWorks and Pubblik&Vos, has created a stylish and functional environment.

The interior enhances the grandeur of the Second Golden Age – with Venetian mirrors, Persian carpets, and gilded details – with modern workspaces and flexible meeting areas. The result is an inspiring workplace where history and contemporary design come together.

Edelman is a global communications firm that helps companies develop, strengthen, and protect their brand and reputation. With 6,000 employees in 60+ offices, it offers strategic communication solutions to build trust with clients and stakeholders.

Beamm has been represent the interests of Edelman during the design and execution phases. The result is spectacular and creates an unparalleled sense of elegance and flowing lines throughout the office.
